striking her on the nose, but two against one were proving on the whole too much for Seidler until his brother Max appeared and evened up the comparative strength of the contending forces. The fight was raging fast and furious when the officers appeared on the scene, and then the war of fists and teeth was succeeded by one of words. Each of the beiligerents attempted to tell his troubles to the policemen in his own language and the combination volley of Greek, Russian and Scandinavian which resulted was too much for the conserva-

ITRIBUNE SPECIAL 1

Logan, Jan. 24.—The basket-ball game in the B. Y. C. symnasium last evening beween the B. Y. U. and B. Y. C. teams reulted in a victory for the former by a ore of 16 to 9 The first half was interesting, both sides lowing up well and playing good bull, the score being 7 to 6 in favor of the lo-cals at the end of the half. The last half was a miserable counterfelt of the game, and for a time it looked as though it ould not be finished. The bone of contention was the alleged arbitrary rulings of Referee Colton, the coach of the B. Y. The little fellows from Provo found It to their advantage to play the husky locals just as close as possible, and began tacking on to them, and although capable of carrying them, the locals objected to being ridden all the time, even if the visliors were small, and so informed the referee. The matter was patched up, however, and the game continued, but the home aggregation could not recover their balance. Their heads had gone glitamering, and before they could get them back their colors were literally trailed in the dust and the midgets from the south had dropped four baskets and scored two free throws. The locals scored two free throws in the last half, but could not locate the basket.

The support was admirable, all available space being packed with admirers of the game, which demonstrated the fact that Logan is in for good basket-ball.

B. Y. U. B. Y. C. lters were small, and so informed the SOFT, GLOSSY HAIR.

It Can Only Be Had Where There Is

No Dandruff. Any man or woman who wants soft, glossy hair must be free of daudruff, which causes falling bair. Since it has become known that dandruff is a germ disease, the old hair preparations that were mostly scalp irritants, have been abandoned, and the poblic, barbers and dectors included have taken to using Newbro's Herpicide, the only hair preparation that kills the dandruff germ. E. Dodd, Dickinson, N. D., says: 'Herpicide not only cleanses the scalp from dandruff and prevents the hair failing out, but prunotes a new growth. Herpicide keeps my hair very glossy. HAIR TURNING GRAY.

HAIR TURNING GRAY

Shockley is beginning to take a much more serious view of his position than he did a week ago. His is one of those mercurial natures which crave companionship, activity and excitement, and the solitade of a prison cell weighs heavily upon his spirits. Gray hairs are becoming very numerous in his raven locks and deep lines appear in his face. Vesterday he complained that he was not feeling well.

Doubtless acting under the adelec of his atterneys, he has put a brake on his tongue and refuses to discuss his case for publication. He takes a gloomy view of his probable fate and is the anitthesis of Frank Rose, the wife-murderer, who maintains complete Indifference as to what is done with him Rose's only complaint is over the delay in the execution of justice. He does not cure much whether he is shot or hunged, our says he will choose shooting because it will be over quicker.

PARENTS KNOW THE TRUTCH.

PARENTS KNOW THE TRUTH. Shockley's parents have not communicated with him since they learned of his rime, but it is a certainty that they are now familiar with it, for they wrote to be landlady of the rooming-house where Shockley formerly stopped, several days ago, asking if he were the man under treat.

GAYERS WILL APPEAR.

The Provo boys have now contested with every team in the league and are of the opinion that they have a chance to come out on top, despite the Saints recent victory over them. However, they had little to say on the subject, preferring to await results. They have the second place cinched and will be the Saints closest opponents this year. Although they refused to say much about their own work, they were free with their praise of the Loganites, declaring that they played fast and furious bail. They are undecided which way to head for, as the Chicago theaters are dark and there are thousands of actors out of work in New York. Mrs. Gayer is a demure, little Englishwoman with a pretty voice and a catchy way of singing, as was demonstrated in the performance here of "Hello, Bill." Mr. Geyer is also English and was an officer in the army for some time. He declares he is not "broke" or stranded in the asyal sense of the word, but temperarily embarassed. The agitation to eliminate the financial aspect of these contests has been going on for some years, but it was not until tought that the decisive step was taken. A meeting of the athletic committees of the two universities was held this evening, with C. M. Fickert of Berkeley as chairman. The managers of both teams made a strong stand for the continuance of the contests in San Francisco, but it was voted to hereafter have the teams meet on the grounds of the colleges. The next game will be played the second Saturday of November at the Berkeley campus. The 1975 contest will take place at Stanford.
